The steamer Kilauea, Hou will go out of commission today for a fortnight's overhauling and repairing.
 J. J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, has ordered two great ocean liners in England to ply between Seattle and Yokohama. Auckland paper: The local branch of the Union Steamship Company on October 18 received advice from their manager at Papeete, stating that the American bark Louis arrived at Talohae, Marquesas Islands, on September 8, in a leaky condition. The bark was bound from Iquique, South America, to Honolulu, with a cargo of nitre. It was the intention of the master of the bark to discharge all but 300 tons of the cargo, and proceed to San Francisco to carry out the necessary repairs.
